

William Lloyd Garrison.
Boston.

Boston Jan 9 1888.

My dear Sir

I hastily subscribe my name to the call for the Convention which you I shall op. But I don't think I shall be able to take any personal part in the discussions at that Convention. Still I will do what I can. Sometimes I have thought that hitherto aimed to place this-worldliness of N.E. nothing but Robert--Nathans would keep (in time meant less study for harvesting the land & yet work by making all this time devoted to Wormwood. But there is "a better time a coming," and bless you & all attempts to bring it now.

Yours truly
Wm L. Garrison, Thos. Parker
